

2016 Foreign Promising Baduk Player

Invitation & Education Project Demand Survey

▪ Project Information

- The Korea Amateur Baduk Association (KABA) started Foreign Promising Baduk Player Invitation & Education Project in 2015 to find young outstanding players outside of East Asia. The project was sponsored by the Korea Sports Promotion Funds. Early this year, KABA invited 13 foreign promising Baduk players to Korea, and educated them in one of the best Baduk institutions in Korea for 3months from June to August, 2015.
- In 2016, KABA will continue the Foreign Promising Baduk Player Invitation & Education Project in the same format as this year, with the sponsorship of the Korea Sports Promotion Funds. (Education Period: 2months)
- We would like to ask your association to check the demand for the project in advance, and we will use this information as reference for selecting players for the 2016 project.
- Please let us know if you have one or more players interested in this project and meet our requirements. The below is the summary of 2015 project and plans for 2016 project.
